New Saanich Police Chief Constable Announced

SAANICH, BC. The Saanich Police Board today named M.R. (Mike) Chadwick as Chief Constable of the Saanich Police Department. Chadwick will assume the position of Chief Constable August 1, 2009 when Chief Constable Derek Egan retires.

Chadwick began his career with the Saanich Police Department in 1975 and moved up steadily through the ranks. He received a Police Exemplary Service Medal from the Governor General of Canada, and in December, 2001 was appointed Deputy Chief Constable.

Saanich Police Board Chair Mayor Frank Leonard said, "The Saanich Police Board and members of the Department are proud of Mike Chadwick's 35 years of service and congratulate him on his promotion to Chief Constable. We are confident his leadership will uphold the respect, integrity, and trust the Saanich Police Department earns every day."
