

Cuthbert Holmes Park

This park is named after Major H. Cuthbert Holmes, who was interested in protecting greenbelt lands. A large variety of birds frequent this area, in particular, the Great Blue Heron. The Colquitz River meanders through the deep quiet of a mature forest. Parking is available off Admirals Rd.